

Protected Disclosure Annual Report 2023

Section 22 (5) of the Protected Disclosure Act 2014 (as amended) requires that a public body shall prepare and publish, not later than 31 March each year, a report in respect of the immediately preceding calendar year.

The report must contain the following:

1. A statement confirming that the public body has in place either or both of the following:
 - a. internal reporting channels and procedures;
 - b. external reporting channels and procedures;
2. The information provided by DkIT to the Minister under Section 22 (1) (a-k) of the Act

The Institute has internal reporting channels in place for the reporting of Protected Disclosures.

The Institute's Protected Disclosure Policy outlines in detail the internal and external reporting channels available to individuals.

DkIT also has a confidential email, protecteddisclosures@dkit.ie, which can be used to submit a disclosure.

The following information was provided by DkIT to the Minister of Public Expenditure, NDP Delivery & Reform for the year 2023:

Ref	Report Requirement	Response
1	Number of reports made to DkIT in 2023.	Nil
2	Number of reports submitted by the Commissioners (or other relevant bodies) to DkIT in 2023.	Nil
3	In the case of each report whether the relevant wrongdoing was a breach.	N/A
4	The number of investigations or proceedings opened in relation to the relevant wrongdoing in the years preceding the year the report was made.	Nil
5	The number of investigations or proceedings in relation to the relevant wrongdoing that remain open.	Nil
6	The number of investigations or proceedings in relation to the relevant wrongdoing that were closed by DkIT.	Nil
7	In relation to each closed investigation or proceeding:
	The outcome of the investigation or proceeding.	N/A
	Decision taken by DkIT.	N/A
	Estimated financial damage and amounts recovered following any investigation or proceeding referred.	N/A