

Policy on Filming in the De Chastelain Library

Filming videos and taking photographs is permitted in the Library if it is for a non-commercial, academic or cultural purpose, and where the following conditions are met:

- people are not disturbed in their work or movement
- permission is obtained from each person whose face is photographed or filmed

The Library will need confirmation of a Health and Safety risk assessment and Data Protection clearance.

November 2019